Press release

Project launch

The National Agency of Civil Servants has the role to implement government strategies on the management of civil service and civil servants as well as on the training of staff in public administration in Romania.

In the period 25.09.2012 - 25.09.2014 the project „e-NACS - Strengthening the institutional capacity of NACS to ensure an efficient management of the civil service and civil servants in the central public administration and public services under the subordination/ coordination of central and local authorities through the implementation of innovative tools”, SMIS code 36675, with a total eligible value of 14,513,253.92 RON plus VAT.

By implementing this project, the Agency aims at developing innovative tools for the effective performance of the role and duties which public institutions perform in the civil service and civil servants management, in relation to NACS i.e. implementing electronic signature in the central, county, municipal and town government and electronic archives for documents with electronic signature, including NACS archive.

The importance and relevance of the project are highlighted also by the addressed target group, respectively 1,930 public authorities and institutions of the central and local public administration in Romania, geographically distributed on the entire territory of Romania's administrative space, and 4,000 civil servants, 2 representatives from each public authority and institution of central and local public administration in Romania including NACS.

On February 26, 2013, the project will officially start at the launching conference to be attended by a total of 120 guests from the target group, representatives of NGOs and the media.
