

MINISTRY OF ADMINISTRATION AND INTERIOR National Agency of Civil Servants

6 June 2012

PRESS RELEASE

Eugen Coifan was appointed new president of NACS

Tuesday, June 5, 2012, at the National Agency of Civil Servants headquarter took place the ceremony to inaugurate the new President of the institution, Eugen Coifan.

Together with representatives of NACS, the event was attended also by Victor Paul Dobre, the Minister delegated for Administration and Constantin Cătălin Chiper, Secretary of State for relationship with Prefect's Institutions in the Ministry of Administration and Interior.

In his speech, Minister Dobre congratulated the new President, noting the key role of the Agency and stressing the joint efforts to be made to capitalize the Romanian public administration's elite – civil servants.

In turn, NACS President thanked MAI officials for attending the event, manifesting his availability for cooperation, but also his joy to work with many former colleagues. We remind that Eugen Coifan was the Vice-president of the same institution during 2005-2009.

Also, note that, until May 31, 2012, the position of President of NACS was owned by Andras Szakal.
