NACS supports competition in public administration

On April 15, 2013, NACS launched the 6th Edition of the *Competition of best practices in the Romanian public administration.

Between April 15 – June 30, 2013, public institutions and authorities can enter the competition with one or more cases of good practice on this year's three thematic pillars:

- Public administration between systemic constraints and human factor development
- Social media - mechanism for facilitating dialogue with citizens
- Partnership - successful formula of the performance of institutions for the benefit of citizens.

All info on the competition's methodology are available on NACS website www.anfp.gov.ro, section Innovation and Quality/Competition.

The competition ends with the awarding of best practices at the International Conference „Innovation and Quality in the Public Sector” and their national dissemination through a Good Practice Guide.
