The Quality Conference Live

News

NACS informs that the Lithuanian Presidency of the EU Council launched the invitation to watch the live broadcast of the plenary sessions of the 7th Quality Conference - „Towards Responsible Public Administration“, organized in Vilnius. Lithuania, 3-4 October 2013.

The public administration representatives in Member States are encouraged to watch the presentations during the conference live on the web page <http://vakokybe.vrm.lt/index.php?id=504>. The presentations will address both the general theme (3 October 2013, 9:30-10:00 and 4 October 2013, 12:15-13:30) and the three sub-themes in parallel sessions: User-oriented approaches in public services (3 October 2013, 10:00-11:00), Efficient and smart use of public sector resources (3 October 2013, 14:30-15:30), Towards Transparent and Open Public administration (4 October 2013, 9:00-10:10).

NACS supported the Lithuanian Presidency at national level by selecting the best examples of good practice submitted by public institutions and authorities in Romania in March-May 2013. From the applications received, NACS selected and sent the organizers two good practices from Galați County Council and Prahova County Council. Of these, the best practice submitted by Prahova County Council - “Integrated town-planning system for the management of the relationship with the citizens” for thematic pillar Efficient and smart use of public sector resources has been selected and will be presented at the conference by the representatives of the institution in a workshop.
