The International Conference “Innovation and Quality in the Public Sector” News

The National Agency of Civil Servants (NACS) organizes the 6th edition of the International Conference “Innovation and Quality in the Public Sector” in the period 17-19 October 2013, in Predeal-Pârâul Rece, Brașov County.

High representatives of the Romanian Government, representatives of Romanian and European public administration, of professional associative structures, of NGOs and the media are invited to attend the event.

During the event the applications on best practice registered in the Competition of best practices in Romanian public administration, conducted by NACS in April-June 2013 will be presented.

The conference will be structured into plenary sessions covering trending issues, and workshops in which the pillars of the competition will be discussed:

- Public administration between systemic constraints and human factor development
- Social media - a mechanism to facilitate dialogue with citizens
- Partnership - a successful formula for institutions performance for the benefit of citizens

This event is open to all those concerned with the realities of the Romanian administrative system. Registration is done online until October 11, 2013, on NACS website www.anfp.gov.ro subsection Innovation and Quality/ Conference.
