

NACS organizes an exchange of good practice concerning social dialogue and decent work

During the months of April-May 2014, NACS organizes a series of meetings in which there will be an exchange of best practices on social dialogue and decent work. The event, which constitutes an activity within the project „Enhancing social dialogue for civil servants”, takes place in Bucharest and in the counties: Timis, Brasov, Galati, and Iasi.

The project implemented by the National Agency of Civil Servants in partnership with the Norwegian Association of Local and Regional Authorities and the Romanian Municipalities Association (AMR), it is funded by a grant from the Norwegian Government through the Norwegian Financial Mechanism 2009-2014, in the frame of Decent Work and Tripartite Dialogue Program.

The objective of project aims at improving structures and specific social dialogue practices for civil servants, namely enhancing the role of the parity commission within the authorities and public institutions. Together with representatives of NACS, the meetings are attended by the representatives of the parity commission of the Prefect's Institution, the County Council, the municipality of the county seat, the municipality of Bucharest from the partner counties in the project.

During these events, there will be presented the Norwegian experience as a result of carrying out a study visit in Norway and there will be disseminated cases of good practice in the field of social dialogue , identified in the pilot institutions. At the same time, there will be presented the results of the study: „The Parity Commission and the Trade Union. Mechanism of social dialogue for decent working conditions in public administration”, developed within the project.
