The priorities of the Italian Presidency in the Council of the European Union

The National Agency of Civil Servants (NACS) informs that on the 1st of July 2014, Italy took over the six months presidency of the Council of the European Union, which will run from 1st of July to 31 December 2014.

The 18 months joint program, adopted by Italy, together with Latvia and Luxembourg, within the European Public Administration Network (EUPAN), where NACS is member since 2003, aims at improving the quality of public services and the development of human resources.

The EUPAN Italian presidency's priorities envisage:

Within the Innovative Public Services Working Group:

- strengthening the institutional and administrative capacity in administrative reforms and the implementation of cohesion policies;
- development of quality management systems: CAF for cohesion policies

Within the Human Resources Working Group:

- organization, learning and skills in the public service: mapping skills and competences and the increase of mobility;
- the impact of open government policies initiated in the public administration reforms;
