József Birtalan - participation to European meeting

Between 19-20 June 2014, the president of the National Agency of Civil Servants (NACS), József Birtalan, participated to the 62nd meeting of the Directors General of the European Public Administration Network (EPAN).

During the event topics addressed by the Greek Presidency of the EU Council in EUPAN were discussed, such as the structural reforms in the Member States in the context of the fiscal crisis, reviewing public services, the analysis of trends in human resources management in public administration, administrative procedures simplification. During this event Directors General held an informal meeting with the Trade Unions' National and European Administration Delegation (TUNED), discussing the role of human resources in the development of public administration and social dialogue issues.

A major marker of the meeting was the adoption of the Directors General's resolution based on the input member institutions, including NACS, but also the presentation of the results of the Greek Presidency and of the plans the Italian Presidency of the EU Council, which will take office starting July 1st, 2014.

"I appreciate as very interesting and useful our participations in events of this level, considering that the themes covered are among Agency's concerns in regard of human resources management in public administration and reach common points in the activity of representatives of EU member states", said NACS president, József Birtalan
