5th Edition of EU-RO Civil Servant magazine was released

We inform you that the 5th edition of the online magazine EU-RO Civil Servant is available on the NACS website www.anfp.gov.ro at Communication section. We have the great pleasure to host in this edition the materials of our colleagues, representatives of the Prefect's Institution of Timis County, of Tmisoara Town Hall, Turda Town Hall, Vrancea County Council.

Social dialogue models, projects ment to point out the historical value of the Romanian monuments, conservation of cultural heritage are just some of the titles to retain your attention.

We hope that the information in the 5th edition of the EU-RO Civil Servant magazine will be appreciated by the general audience.

We thank our collaborators for the positive answer to our invitation and we rely on their support in the future numbers of the magazine.

We mention that the 6th edition of the magazine will be issued in December 2015. Therefore, we expect proposals for articles untill 1 November 2015, at the email address comunicare@anfp.gov.ro to be included in the magazine.
