NACS President at the international conference in Baku, Azerbaijan

On 9-10 July 2015, the President of the National Agency of Civil Servants (NACS), József Birtalan, participated in Baku (Republic of Azerbaijan) at the international conference on "Capacity Development during Public Administration Reforms".

The conference aimed to gather together experts from representative public administration institutions in different parts of the world to share experiences on building the capacity of civil servants during the implementation of reforms in public administration.

The meeting was organized under the Institutional Reform Plan of the Comprehensive Institution Building Programme of the Eastern Partnership (EaP) and is part of an EU-funded project, aimed at supporting the Civil Service Commission under the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan for the implementation of the Reform Plan.

The conference, opened by the President of the Civil Service Commission under the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, Bahram Khalilov, was attended by public administration representatives, academics and international experts. The key issues discussed focused on the main challenges in developing the capacity of public administration, regional platforms, cultural exchange in the field of civil service, the creation of training centres for civil servants etc.

On this occasion, President József Birtalan appreciated the good cooperation between NACS and Civil Service Commission under the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, cooperation to be developed within an Agreement.

On March 4, 2015 a Memorandum was approved on the "Negotiation of the Cooperation Agreement between the Ministry of Regional Development and Public Administration in Romania and Civil Service Commission under the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan in the field of civil service and civil servants management".
