NACS starts new collaborations

The National Agency of Civil Servants informs that on 20 May 2015 NACS President, József Birtalan, received the visit of the director of the Cervantes Institute in Bucharest, Ms. Rosa María Moro de Andrés.

The objective of the meeting was to promote the projects and programs of Cervantes Institute, as well as to present the opportunities for civil servants in Romania to learn the Spanish.

In this regard, the discussions targeted the variety of Spanish learning courses that may be organized either on site or by using the on-line system, as well as possible facilities for servants and public institutions.

President of the Agency has shown openness to the new potential partners, the cooperation methods remaining to be established.
