

Enhancing Social Dialogue for Civil Servants

Project funded through a Grant awarded by the Government of Norway through Norway Grants 2009-2014 within the Programme Decent Work and Tripartite Dialogue

News

NACS launched a comparative study on social dialogue in public administration in Romania and Norway

Tuesday, 9.12.2014, The National Agency of Civil Servants launched the Comparative Study on social dialogue in public administration in Romania and Norway. The event took place at the Regional Centre of Continuing Training for the Local Public Administration, Bucharest, in the presence of representatives of partners, academic environment, mass-media.

The study was developed within the project Enhancing social dialogue for civil servants by Romanian sociologists in collaboration with experts from Fafo Institute for Labour and Social Research - Norway. This study focused on obtaining a comparative picture of how the social dialogue takes place in Romania and Norway.

The project is implemented by the National Agency of Civil Servants in partnership with Association of Local and Regional Authorities in Norway and the Romanian Municipalities Association, and funded through a Grant awarded by the Government of Norway through Norway Grants 2009-2014 within the Programme Decent Work and Tripartite Dialogue.

The study can be consulted at www.anfp.gov.ro, project page, available at the section Projects / Ongoing Projects.

Communication and International Relation Department
comunicare@anfp.gov.ro
Tel./fax: 0374 11 27 22