NACS visits the Academy of Public Administration of the Republic of Moldova

On 21-22 May 2015, the delegation of the National Agency of Civil Servants (NACS), led by President József Birtalan, participated to a series of events in the Republic of Moldova on the occasion of the organization of the international scientific-practical conference "Theory and Practice of Public Administration (TPAP-2015)".

In this context was signed the Action Plan for 2015 for the implementation of the Cooperation Agreement between the Ministry of Regional Development and Public Administration in Romania and the Academy of Public Administration in the Republic of Moldova on the management of civil service and civil servants.

The event also marked the celebration of 22 years from the founding of the Academy of Public Administration in the Republic of Moldova, institution whose role is to develop the public administration through professional scientific research.

The conference was attended by professors, PhD and master students of the Academy, representatives from the Parliament, Government, Academy of Sciences of Moldova, central and local public authorities, scholars and honored guests from the Czech Republic and Bulgaria. On this occasion scientific reports and communications on public administration were presented in the context of the European roadmap of the Republic of Moldova.

President József Birtalan appreciated the good cooperation the Agency has developed over the years with the Academy of Public Administration of the Republic of Moldova, cooperation which will continue through the implementation of activities scheduled for 2015.
