NACS – attending an international seminar

From 25 to 29 May, a representative from NACS participated at the seminar „Spain and social, economic and political realities in the context of the European Union”, held in Madrid, organized by the National Institute of Public Administration (NIPA) from Spain.

The purpose of this seminar was to strengthen the relations between public administrations at European level and the European Commission and to stimulate the mutual trust, the event gathering together civil servants from the EU Member States and officials of the European Commission.

Thus, the participants got acquainted with the cultural, economic, administrative, political and social structures in Spain.

On the occasion of the event, civil servants from different Member States of the European Union and officials from the European Commission shared experiences, gave presentations on the theme of the event and discussed on public politics in Spain.
