PRESS RELEASE

The European Quality Conference – 8th edition

The National Agency of Civil Servants (NACS) informs that between 01-02 October 2015 the 8th European Quality Conference entitled “Strengthening the capacity of public administration in tackling current and future challenges. Public administration – as part of the solution” will take place in Luxemburg, Esch-Belval.

The event is organized by the Luxembourgish Presidency of European Union through Ministry of Civil Service and Administrative Reform, the European Public Administration Network (EUPAN) and the European Institute of Public Administration (EIPA).

Thus, the public institutions and authorities in Romania are invited to register, in regard to presentation in the conference, cases of good practices on one of the conferences themes:

1. Public administration in the cycle of policy designs, implementation and evaluation
2. Strategic thinking regarding future-oriented and innovative public administration
3. Strengthening professionalism in building an innovative public administration
4. Innovative service provisions through stakeholders and citizen - user involvement
5. Societal responsibility

The good practices will be written in English, in the format solicited by organizers (see the subscription form).

NACS, as member of EUPAN, will centralize and select the cases of good practices and communicate them to organizers (maximum 2 good practices on national level).

The deadline for transmitting the application to NACS is 27 April 2015.

“The National Agency of Civil Servants its continuously preoccupied with the insurance and improvement of quality at the level of public administration, and for this reason I address you the invitation to accept the challenge launched at European level and make known the successful examples resulted from your activity”, it the message of NACS president, József BIRTALAN.

For the submission of cases of good practices and for other details, the person to contact is Mrs. Bianka Diacencu, expert Innovation, International Relations and Projects Unit, Tel.0374.11.724, e-mail: bianka.diacencu@anfp.gov.ro.

Information on the selection procedure and the conference themes can be found on the Conference Guide.
