

Project Development of a unitary management system for human resources from public administration
Launching Conference
News

On Tuesday 19 June 2018 ANFP President Vasile Felix COZMA participated in the launching of the project Developing a unitary management system for human resources in public administration co-financed by the European Social Fund through the Operational Capacity Operational Program and implemented by the General Secretariat of the Government, in partnership with the National Agency of Civil Servants and the Ministry of Labor and Social Justice.

The event was attended by representatives of the public administration and the European Commission, as well as the World Bank, an organization that provides expertise in this project. ANFP also attended the conference, Andreea Arcan, vice-president of the institution, together with members of the project team and people involved in the project activities.

The conference was attended by representatives of partner institutions in the project, experts from the European Commission and the World Bank, and a brief overview of the main activities and results of the project was carried out. At the same time, the conference offered the opportunity to present the preliminary results of the World Bank experts' analysis of the status of policies and practices in the field of human resources in the public administration.

"I am convinced that although the course will not be an easy one, the project will bring tangible results, managing to provide consistent support to the process of achieving a unitary management of human resources in public administration," said the ANFP president in closing his intervention event.

Further details on the project can be found on the ANFP website, www.anfp.gov.ro, Project / Implementation section