ANFP supports the project

“Enhancing the Legal Protection for EU Financial Interests in Romania”

The National Agency of Civil Servants supports the project "Enhancing the Legal Protection for EU Financial Interests in Romania", implemented by Freedom House Romania and funded by the European Commission in the D - Policy Directorate, OLAF D.1 - Policy Development & Hercule.

Through this project, three conferences will be organized, with the theme of European Funds Litigation, Bucharest (21-22 June 2018), Cluj-Napoca (June 27-28, 2018) and Iasi (15-16 November 2018). The conferences will discuss key issues in the field of European funds, with participants being able to learn ways in which practical situations of suspected fraud / irregularities can be managed, as well as their financial consequences.

Representatives of management authorities, judges, prosecutors, lawyers, and law enforcement officials are expected to attend debates.

Civil servants interested in attending these conferences can sign up online by visiting the site <http://freedomhouse.ro/conferinta/>.
